Reading, "Sam's Letter," comic character with scores, Mrs. Slover and eight school girls.
Rev. G. H. Hamlin of Lewiston preached at the Federated church last Sunday and stayed over until Friday, speaking each night. Tuesday evening was young peoples' night and a question box which was well responded to and Dr. Hamlin made the answers very interesting and instructive. Dr. Hamlin is such a big-souled, tactful man that everybody loves to hear him.

The fire alarm again aroused the natives about 5:30 P. M., last Friday, when fire was discovered in the second story kitchen of the Locke house now owned by Lauri Immonen. The fire department responded and examination made and it was thought to be all out and retired only to be called again in half an hour. The greater part of the main house was destroyed. The oil, carriage house and barn were saved by cutting through and applying two streams of water on either side which was a great wonder when the wind was blowing in that direction. Mr. and Mrs. Immonen are in Florida and the Finnish minister and wife were living in their apartment. Jacob Immonen was here and sent a telegram to his people that night. Albert Jackson also had a room there. Quite a lot of the furnishings were saved. Up stairs Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Cash and little son were living. Quite a lot of the furniture and bedding was saved but dishes and kitchen utensils were destroyed. They didn't have any insurance. A kitchen shower is being given them. Mr. Immonen had some insurance. The pumping apparatus at the garage. The pumping apparatus at the garage. The steam is always ready day night or Sunday and the hosemen true to their post. Albert Scribner and Truman Emera watched the remainder of the night after the all out whistle-at eleven. Mrs. Anna B. Perkins served hot coffee to the firemen.

The remains of Frank Briggs were brought here last Saturday and the funeral was held in the Universalist church, Rev. E. B. Forbes officiating. There was a very large display of flowers. Mr. Briggs was a native here. His parents were George and Ellen Briggs. He has two brothers living here, Linus and Charles Briggs. "The World's Greatest Buy"

Everyone Says It—Sales Prove It

Hudson is not called "the World's Greatest Buy" for today alone. That is acknowledgment of ten years' constant refinement of a great car around the famous patented Super-Six principle. The largest production of 6-cylinder closed cars in the world give it unequalled value advantages.

All now know that higher price can buy no smoother performance than Hudson's. It cannot buy more brilliant results in pick-up, power or speed. It cannot buy greater reliability or endurance. At today's prices need you own a lesser car? Can a costlier car satisfy you more?

Service at the Church.

About twenty-five people braved the winds and the bad roads and were present at the supper and the service on Friday evening at the Albany Church.

After a beautiful repast, Mrs. Ives, the pastor, gave an account of the "Conference on the Causes and Use of War" which was held in Washington in January. Mrs. Ives emphasized the ideal that disputes between nations in the future must be settled by an international court, just as a dispute between two citizens is now settled, not by murder, but by the law courts of our U. S. She described a reception to the delegates of the conference at the White House, at which President Coolidge read a paper on "The United States' Duty in International Affairs," in which he favored America's entrance into the world court.

There was special music by Mrs. Frances Wardwell, Howard Allen, John Stevens and Philip Becker, after which Mrs. Ives preached on the text, "What shall a man give in exchange for his soul?" Mrs. Ives stated that a man's body isn't the real man. One can maintain the body or partially destroy it, and the man can still think he can still live; what then, will a man be able to keep for eternity? Surely not his body, not his crops, no, not his dollars and cents, but his soul. What is a man's soul? It is as high as a man can think, as broad as a man can endure and as deep as a man can love. Kindness, justice, unselfishness, righteousness, as Jesus the Christ lived then, and it is the light and the power of a man's soul, and through Him, a man shall find life eternal in the heart of the living God.

Mrs. William Adams went to Portland Saturday where she entered the hospital for treatment.

Mrs. Ives, who was in town part of Friday and Saturday, made all the calls possible in short a time. She expects to be with us for another service, March 12.

Our opinion of Universal Ration is best evidenced by the fact that we have booked 100 tons for future delivery. We would not have done so if we were not satisfied that we could maintain the growth and condition and milk production with this feed, and also effect a saving in feed bills of more than $1200.00 annually.

Very truly yours,
